(b) if so, the details of the blocks selected by the Government, State-wise;

(c) the funds allocated for these projects; and

(d) the criteria followed in selecting these blocks?

Answer

MINISTER OF STATE IN THE MINISTRY OF HUMAN RESOURCE DEVELOPMENT (SHRIMATI SUMITRA MAHAJAN)

(a) Till February 2002 end, the National-level Project Sanctioning Committee has cleared 52 Block-specific Projects of 26 States/Union Territories; powers to sanction 425 Block- specific Projects have been delegated to 19 State/Union Territory Governments; and 5 States have reported clearing 61 Block-specific Projects in pursuance of the said delegated powers.

(b) List of 52 Blocks for which the National-level Project SanctioningCommittee has cleared Block-specific Projects and of 61 Blocks for which States have reported clearing Block-specific Projects is anexed as 'Annexure-I'.

(c) Awayamsidha is a six-year, Rs.116.30 crore project, initiated in March 2001 (2000-01). Rs.8 crore are allocated for National-level expenses. Rs.16 crore ae allocated for State-level expenses; the details of funds allocated State- wise are annexed as 'Annexure-II'. Rs.92.30 crore are availabdle for Block-level expenses; Rs.14.20 lakh are available per Block for the 650 Blocks under Swayamsidha.

(d) State/Union Territory Governments select specific Blocks for implementation of Swayamsidha. The criteria for selection of Blocks, laid down in the Salient Project Details of Swayamsidha, are as follows:-

"While all the 238 erstwhile IMY blocks will be retained the new 412 blocks will be selected keeping in view the following:-

• Preference will be given to areas where similar schemes do not exist and there is no group movement;

• Preference will also be given to areas where crime rate against women is high, major social indicators are unfavourable to women;

• State Government is committing additional resources and linkages for women's development; and

• Priority will be given to blocks having a large number of population below the poverty line and high proportion of Scheduled Caste and Scheduled Tribe population."
